IS THIS YOUR FIRST APPLICATION?
 IF NOT, WHAT YEAR DID YOU APPLY?

CHOICE OF UNIVERSITIES

Columbia University Law School (CLS) is offering six fellowship positions, the NYU School of Law is offering six visitor positions. Based on the courses being offered by both universities, applicants must state their preference for which university they wish to attend. Final selection of fellows will be made by a committee comprised of Columbia University/NYU/UNITAR representatives.

Based on the courses offered, I would like to attend (select one):

Columbia University Law School

NYU School of Law

CHOICE OF COURSES

With this form, you will apply for a fellowship position at one of the Law Schools (either Columbia University or New York University) for the Spring term of 2008 (January - April 2008). If you are selected by CLS or NYU School of Law, you can audit up to three academic courses (maximum) during the academic Spring term of 2008. It cannot be guaranteed that the courses you have chosen below can be audited.

I would like to attend the following course(s):

	Course number	Course title	Professor	University
1
2
3

Please note that your participation in the courses can only be confirmed after you have been admitted to the Programme directly through Columbia University Law School or NYU School of Law.

PLEASE ATTACH:

- A curriculum vitae, detailing the following:
 1. Educational history
 2. Employment history, including your current position
 3. Membership in professional organizations
 4. Activities in civil, public and international affairs
- The letter of consent signed by the Head of your Mission
- A personal letter stating:
 1. Your reasons for applying and choice of university
 2. Your main field(s) of professional interest
 3. How you hope to use this Programme in your work/ career.
